PHD Chamber's Viewpoint

The growing severity of widespread pandemic COVID-19 on our economy is a matter of deep concern. PHD Chamber of Commerce stands in complete solidarity and pledges to extend its all-out support to the Government in the fight for making India COVID-19 free. At this juncture, there is a need to maintain a growth trajectory at around 5% and therefore, a fiscal stimulus of at least 5% of GDP i.e. around Rs 11 Lakh Crores is necessary to mitigate the impact of Pandemic COVID-19 on economy, trade and Industry through various relief measures and benefits to India's trade and industry. An automatic increase of 25% in working capital without any procedure and application to reduce stress on businesses; to convert increased working capital in a term-loan with a provision of 3 years repayment period are crucial at this juncture.

The proactive and combative measures undertaken by the Government to curtail the spread of pandemic COVID-19 are highly appreciable. Immediate reduction in the lending rate by all the banks to percolate the full effect of recent 75 basis points cut in repo rate by RBI should be done. To defer the EMIs of the term-loans for 6 months, special interest subvention @ 3% in loans to MSMEs and other badly affected industries; to abolish all fixed charges of all the utilities and defer all utilities' bills by 3 months are crucial at this juncture. Release of outstanding payments of MSMEs, from the Government and PSUs; rationalisation of GST rate structure by merging 18% tax slab with 12% tax slab, among others are significant needed in this extremely difficult time.

The reforms undertaken by the Government to contain the spread of COVID-19 in India are highly encouraging. It is suggested that herbs dealers and packing material industries cum dealers should be permitted to work to maintain the smooth supply of raw material/packing materials for manufacturing of medicines by Pharma/Ayush sector. Some of the long terms measures that must be undertaken include reducing income tax of the proprietorship and LLPs firms to the level of 25% for old and 15% for new companies; reduce the customs duties on basic raw materials by at least 5 percentage points; further reduction of 100 basis points repo rate cut are necessary to enhance the competitiveness of manufacturers.

The proactive and fast track measures undertaken by the Government to combat the impact of pandemic COVID-19 on trade and industry are highly appreciable. We are quite optimistic that the Economic Response Task Force will combat the impact of pandemic covid-19 on India's economy, trade and industry. At this juncture, it is recommended that the consumption expenditure by the Government should be enhanced, even if fiscal deficit slips by 2 percentage points to revive the demand scenario in the economy.

Executive Summary

India is currently battling its worst health emergency in the form of the coronavirus outbreak that is spreading rapidly across the country with vast number of new cases being reported every day. Though the government has maintained that India is yet not in the stage of "community transmission", new cases continue to be reported daily. Each week is crucial for the country as there has been a consistent spike in the number of new cases being reported, especially in states like Maharashtra, Tamil Nadu and Delhi. The scale of this health emergency is such that the entire country has been put under a further lockdown with only essential services being operational. The severity of pandemic COVID 19 is increasing each day. The whole mankind in the world is in huge problem and uncertainty about the severity and spread of pandemic Covid-19. In India, there is complete lockdown in the country.

PHD Chamber of Commerce industry is vigilant in tracking the impact of pandemic COVID 19 on the global and domestic trade and economy. We have compiled a one point information report on all the relief measures undertaken by the State Governments in their respective states. This health emergency has put immense pressure on the country's healthcare system and the economy has been severely disrupted. However, there has been a silver lining when the entire nation is in the grip of the pandemic. The government is planning a targeted approach to tackle the cases as most of them are concentrated in these few geographies.

Rajasthan's Bhilwara has, indeed, come a long way in its fight against the novel coronavirus pandemic, from being one of the most affected COVID-19 districts in India to not reporting a new COVID-19 case. The popular textile town reported its first COVID-19 case on 19th March 2020 and then quickly emerged as a hotspot, reporting 27 cases, becoming the worst-affected district in Rajasthan. Seeing the rapid growth in new infections, the district administration sprang into action swiftly and pursued an aggressive model of containing the spread of this virus, involving a variety of measures. The district administration took over four private hospitals and 27 hotels with 1,541 rooms. These measures began bearing fruit as the town has not reported a new case of COVID-19 since 30th March.

The success of Bhilwara in containing the transmission of coronavirus has now prompted the central government to adopt the 'Bhilwara model of containment' on a nationwide scale, particularly with the most-affected 62 districts in different states of India. On the other hand, Kerala has drawn heavily on its crisis management experience from the 2018 floods and fighting the Nipah outbreak. Its resilience in rebuilding after the devastating floods is illustrative of its communal amity and of a courageous and informed society. Going ahead, Indian states' governments are consistently taking proactive measures to support their residents and patients by providing real time medical aid, relief funding, food and shelter that are the necessity of the hour.
