No discussion on Hindi literature is complete without the mention of Munshi Premchand. He was a simple man and his simplicity reflects in his writings. His stories effortlessly portray complicated human emotions and are a clear reflection of the conditions that prevailed in the society in the era gone by, with each one being just as captivating now as it was back in the day.

Nepathya foundation is a theatre group based in Delhi . In a moving tribute to the doyen of Hindi Literature Munshi Premchand, the group will enact four short stories of the writer namely Moteramji Shastri, Shanti, Bade Bhai Sahab and Sadgati. The play will leave everyone spellbound by the simple yet hard hitting and soul stirring stories of Munshi Premchand. The foundation's efforts helps to keep alive the timeless stories of the writer and ensure that generations to come continue to appreciate the great works of Munshi Premchand.

Mala Kumar is the founder of Nepathya Foundation and has also acted as lead in two stories . The foundation is into the promotion of Theatre, Art & Culture, along with having workshops for underprivileged children in modulating and teaching them different art forms. The foundation is fairly new and they have performed two famous plays till now ...with this being the third show of the current production.

The play is directed by national award winning director Rajendra Nath and features actors like Sanjeev Johri, Rekha Johri, Jagdish Kanojia, PV Bindu, Animesh Singhal, Gaurav Sethi, Vishal Singh and Abhishek Kumar.

Each character etched by the writer is real and three dimensional, while being a challenge, it is also an honour for the actors to perform the stories of India's great writer Premchand.
