

India Co-Chaired the 2nd G20 Employment Working Group Meeting at Brasilia

The 2nd Employment Working Group (EWG) meeting was held at Brasilia under the Brazilian Presidency, with India and South Africa as Co-Chairs. The G20 EWG's mandate is to address labour, employment, and social concerns in order to promote strong, long-term, balanced, and job-rich growth for everybody.

The 2nd EWG meeting will focus on (i) creating quality employment and promoting decent labor; (ii) addressing a just transition amidst digital and energy transformations; (iii) leveraging technologies to enhance the quality of life for all; (iv) the emphasis on gender equity and promoting diversity in the world of employment for inclusivity, driving innovation and growth.

The Indian delegation emphasized the importance of fostering inclusive cultures that ensure equitable representation and empowerment for everyone, regardless of color, gender, ethnicity, or socioeconomic status. The Indian delegation explained important initiatives taken by India to promote (i) gender equality in the workplace and beyond; (ii) steps taken for migrant workers; (iii) promoting reemployment of senior citizens, (iv) participation in the workforce of the differently abled and the marginalized.
