Background

In today's dynamic world, possessing a wide range of skills is crucial for personal and professional growth as it helps in enhancing one's performance and achieve career goals. Of all skills, leadership skills are one of the most crucial skills for personal, team, and organizational growth. Effective leaders can motivate and inspire others, foster collaboration, and guide teams towards achieving common goals, ultimately contributing to a positive work environment. Effective leaders prioritize both their own well-being and the well-being of their team, fostering a work environment where balance is maintained.

PHDCCI is delighted to invite your organization to a specially curated 4-Days Residential Training Programme on Leadership Skills & Work-Life Balance for those who are at a growing career phase to take the insights from the programme and implement in their daily routine. The Programme will guide the young leaders to prioritize the time needed for achieving professional goals, personal growth, leading to improved mental health, stronger relationships, and increased overall well-being which also helps in reducing stress, prevent burnout, and foster a healthier and more productive lifestyle.
