Early Market Engagement

Request for Information for an electronic- Government Procurement (e-GP) System

(Authorised under Directive No 25 of the Procurement Policy Office)

1. Objectives

The Ministry of Finance, intends to replace the current electronic procurement system with a more modern and efficient e-Government Procurement (e-GP) system to be hosted by the Procurement Policy Office.

This Request for Information (RFI) exercise is intended to identify a suitable solution available on the market—one with a proven track record and flexibility to meet Government's evolving needs prior to undertaking a competitive bidding process.

The system is expected to deliver the following:

- A dynamic and responsive user interface
- Advanced data analytics and artificial intelligence integration
- Comprehensive e-Catalogue functionality
- Compliance with the Open Contracting Data Standard (OCDS)
- Configurable workflows and automated controls
- Integration with e-Payment and other national systems
- Support for Sustainable and Green Public Procurement

2. Submission

All interested suppliers who wish to showcase their solutions are requested to express their interest by making a written submission addressed to the Chairperson Departmental Bid Committee (DBC), Ministry of Finance, in a sealed envelope clearly marked “ Early Market Engagement – New e-GP System”, and deposited in the Bid Box, located on 5th floor, New Government Centre, Port Louis by 13.00 hours (local time) at latest, on Wednesday 17 December 2025.

3. Information to be Submitted

The submission should comprise the following information amongst others:

- Company profile
- Proven track record in providing electronic procurement solutions
- A complete description of proposed system and how it will achieve the set objectives

- Estimated time frame for:
 - Development of the system
 - Training of staff, configuration of terminals, data migration and start of operations per location.

4. Important Notes

- This exercise does not constitute an invitation to quote, and no pricing information should be submitted.
- Participation in this market engagement does not imply any commitment or confer any advantage in future procurement processes.
- All information shared will be treated with strict commercial confidentiality.
- Suppliers may be invited to present their proposed system at the Ministry, at their own cost.
